Myers Container CEO to speak at GoGreen '11 Portland Conference

Following recent recognition by the Portland Business Journal as a Sustainable Operations Award Winner, Myers Container CEO Kyle Stavig will be a featured speaker at GoGreen 11' Portland Conference. He will join other sustainability leaders highlighting innovative sustainable practices their companies have implemented.

GoGreen is a national conference that happens annually in Austin, TX, Phoenix, AZ, Seattle, WA and Portland, OR. The conference brings sustainability visionaries together from varying industries to share unique ideas, learn about the latest trends and educate on sustainable business practices.

The GoGreen '11 Portland Conference occurs Tuesday, October 4th from 8:30am – 5:00pm at the Gerding Theater at the Armory. For more information, please visit: www.portland.gogreenconference.net

About

In 2007, the Stavig brothers acquired Myers Container and Container Management Services, the fourth generation in the family-owned business, dating back to 1917. Today, both companies are operated under the Myers Container name. In February 2011, General Steel Drum in North Carolina was added to the family but continues to be operated under its own name.
